

SOCIETY

luminous around the many well-ventilated of the garden was the elaborate reception given Friday afternoon by Miss Annie Jones and her sisters, Miss Marion Moore, at the handsome new "Ivory House" in the neighborhood just to the side of the old townhouse, to their sisters, Mrs. W. L. Martin, Mrs. R. C. Jones and Mrs. F. E. Vance of Oklahoma City. The house itself is most beautiful for arrangement and decor and for this occasion it was especially attractive. The entrance of the large pillars supporting the reception hall and porch was flanked with enormous fern palms and huge bunches of erysantheums. The large double porches were in a pale shade of green with coral-berries and wood-rose of dark rich mahogany with green, eucalyptus. Vases of fragrant red lilies and silver carnations decorated the mantel and piano, while the chandeliers were wreathed in holly. In the adjacent receiving line, four sisters, Mesdames Wear, Martin and Jones of Oklahoma City and Mrs. Drew and Miss Moore, Mrs. Townsend, Potter, W. R. Moore, J. C. Thompson and Miss Allen Moore assisted in the party.

The library was in blue with large bowls of deep purple violets. Mrs. Potter of Gainesville, Mrs. Kearney, Mrs. Banded, Mrs. Poland and Mrs. Balor were stationed in here, while Mrs. E. E. Gault and Miss Bernice Higgins served lunch. From the library you were shown upstairs by Mesdames Starr and C. L. Anderson. In the upper hall you were met by Mrs. Berasherie, Miss Burnett and Misses Alvis and Landon, daintily dressed in red, and served refreshments in the red room, which was beautiful in its deep crimson furnishings and paper and great vases of red carnations on each table. The refreshments carried out the same color scheme. Misses Holt, Ritt and Pat Baker also waited in here. From here you were taken to the dining room and served with tea, cake, coffee and mints. Mesdames Perry, Maxwell, Donald Lacy, Misses Burnett, Stanwell and Rivers also had charge of this room, which was the prettiest of all with hangings American Beauties in every available place. In the center of the dining table was a rich center piece of Chlorostyly on which sat an immense cut glass vase of American Beauties and the red candles at each corner.

Mrs. C. M. Campbell, Mrs. Will Potter, Mrs. Handcock, and Mrs. Kearney were in the hall.

During the afternoon, Mrs. Martin who is a vocalist of unusual range and power whose voice has been cultivated not only in the schools, but the east but under the best masters abroad, sang and was accompanied on the piano by Miss Alice Moore, her numbers were "Swanee River," "Love's Dream," and "Auntie Sarah." Mrs. Martin has charge of the vocal culture department in the Oklahoma College for girls at Oklahoma City. The guest list included

Misses Annie Maers, Alice Moore,
John Halls, MacFarlane, W. O. Hays,
John W. A. Leichter, T. P. Bousquet,
W. P. F. Bond, A. L. J.
Alexander, M. Giesend, W. D. J. J.
Lents, G. Nichols, J. H. Kahn, C. L.
Anderson, T. A. Leichter, B. B.
Bradford, W. P. Bell, C. C. Jones,
P. Lillio, Ben Grimes, D. Gomez, W.
Dietrich, Nettie James, W. W. Telfer,
P. H. Dillard, Paul Jones, A.
H. Palmer, D. A. Newland, John Galt,
Lauri Johnson, D. T. Nishat, Carlie
Maxwell, J. J. Wainston, T. B.
Johnson, Jesse Whitehead, J. W. Pol-
som, L. Y. Hunter, P. B. Williams,
W. B. Mackintosh, W. H. Mackintosh,
A. A. Madden, J. A. Edwards, H. C.
Mottet, F. C. McIlrath, A. A. Kersh,
W. C. Kendall, M. Ward, J. S. Townsend, Donald Lase, S. H. McCoy, L. P.
Stanley, W. B. Francis, A. G. Edwards,
Tinkle, J. M. Gross, Sam Noble, A.
G. Noble, John Whitman, H. L.
Cruckett, J. C. Humphrey, P. C.
Bum, C. A. Simmons, J. A. Fielder,
W. A. Payne, Harvey, W. D. Hardie,
Eva Noble, Caroline Parantoni, C. C.
Keith, Guy, dates, E. B. Pugh, B.
A. Jones, M. P. Fekker, G. A. Ramsey, Annie Thompson, E. A. Ston-on, John Nichols, Bertha Whitman,
T. A. Pierce, Max Westheimer, Jas.
Kalfish, Forest Rammer, A. W.
Dunham, W. E. McManis, Oklahoma
State, E. D. Luke, Chas. Ceyl, H. C.
McMurry, Preston B. Conlee, W. C.
Jager, William Pfeiffer, 8400
Jones, W. F. Bowman, Sallie Post,
T. S. Harris, W. G. Vornor, G. E.
Westwin, G. Walker, P. P. Von Kol-

Under the Mistletoe

JOEL RUS C. MILLER, W. T. NIXON, W. H. RUTHERFORD, L. L. BLAKE, HAI DUCHUAN, W. I. CHEN, M. I. ALEXANDER

W. S. Wellington, Glen Corbin, J. A. Rivers, A. C. Strickley, D. Redfield, C. L. Requa, Henry Sutherland, D. E. Allen, D. H. Dawson, J. W. Gotschall, J. B. Wall, Clay L. Cox, John T. Oscar Wells, H. H. Brown, S. T. Sampson, C. H. Chumley, D. Landman, C. B. Hanks, C. R. Buchanan, G. A. Drath, D. J. Treadwell, J. L. Blotstein, J. F. Williams, J. E. Williams, Guy P. Cobb, J. H. Reeves, H. H. Goodrich, Dalton, Riggs, Moras, Scott, B. A. Ragland, G. M. and M. J. Hendley, Ed Byrd, R. F. Turner, R. D. Fox, S. S. Tisdan, Harrell, Tom Norman, Winthick, Suback, J. W. Stonum, E. E. Blackieford, R. M. Lester, J. M. Zike, J. W. Sims, H. Wells, R. Herz, J. M. Bird, C. E. Foster, C. M. Campbell, Nita Williams, Clara Campbell, C. O. Bunn, J. S. Berkshire, Leslie Woods, Sally Smith, D. W. Butcher, G. H. Bruce, H. A. Ledbetter, Philip Steves.

One of the charming smaller events of the week was a little informal given by the Misses Miller at their home on West Main street Wednesday evening "42" was the game after which a most delicious three course luncheon was served. The guests were Mr. Harold Wallace and Miss Alice Moore Mr. W. H. Bingham and Miss Frances

Miller, Mr. Edward L. Dean and Miss Hazel Alexander, Mr. Sam Mathews and Miss Helen Miller.

Merry Wives.

Among the pretty entertainments given the past week was that of Wednesday afternoon when Mrs. Fred Danlap entertained the Merry Wives. The decorative scheme was yellow and white the club colors. Fancy work was indulged in during the fore part of the afternoon which was a most interesting something characteristic of those merry bodies. This time it was a "penny for your thought" affair each guest was given a card of questions and a pencil the answers to those were found on the pencil. For in stances: What nationality do you find on a penny? American Indian. What flower? Tulip; and so on. In this contest Mrs. Franklin won first prize a china bon-bon tray and Mrs. John Stone captured second Mrs. Vili Pester has won first prize eight consecutive weeks at these contests this week she allowed her less fortunate friends to come in on first score Mrs. Dunlap served a luncheon in three

The Benevolent Society met with

Wire Your House for Electric Lights

ELECTRIC LIGHTS are safer, cheaper, more cleanly, more convenient and save the eyes. No lamp explosions when you use our lights. You are not poisoned by breathing coal oil smoke when you burn electricity. One coal oil lamp in a room vitiates as much air as a dozen people. Burn electricity and promote the health of your family. Don't smoke your pictures, wall paper and furniture by burning coal oil. Do away with the old method---use electricity. Phone No. 156x99 and a competent electrician will be sent to make you an estimate.

Ardmore Ice, Light & Power Co.

H. E. FOSTER, Manager